

DEPARTMENT OF STATE REVENUE

LETTER OF FINDINGS NUMBER: 05-0338

Cigarette Tax
For Tax Year 2004

NOTICE: Under IC 4-22-7-7, this document is required to be published in the Indiana Register and is effective on its date of publication. It shall remain in effect until the date it is superseded or deleted by the publication of a new document in the Indiana Register. The publication of this document will provide the general public with information about the Department's official position concerning a specific issue.

I. Cigarette Tax--Imposition

Authority: IC 6-8.1-5-1(b); 45 IAC 15-5-3(b); IC 6-7-1-1

Taxpayer protests the imposition of cigarette tax.

II. Tax Administration—Negligence Penalty and Interest

Authority: IC 6-8.1-10-1; IC 6-8.1-10-2.1

Taxpayer protests the imposition of a ten percent negligence penalty and interest.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Taxpayer is an individual. As the result of an investigation, the Indiana Department of Revenue determined that taxpayer owed cigarette tax on cigarettes ordered via the internet and delivered in Indiana. Taxpayer protests that she does not owe these taxes. Further facts will be supplied as required.

I. Cigarette Tax--Imposition

DISCUSSION

Before examining the taxpayer's protest, it should be noted that the taxpayer bears the burden of proof. IC 6-8.1-5-1(b) states in pertinent part:

The notice of proposed assessment is prima facie evidence that the department's claim for the unpaid tax is valid. The burden of proving that the proposed assessment is wrong rests with the person against whom the proposed assessment is made.

The Indiana Administrative Code also states “[t]he burden of proving that a proposed assessment is incorrect rests with the taxpayer...” 45 IAC 15-5-3(b).

The cigarette tax is found at IC 6-7-1-1, which states:

It is the intent and purpose of this chapter to levy a tax on all cigarettes sold, used, consumed, handled, or distributed within this state, and to collect the tax from the person who first sells, uses, consumes, handles, or distributes the cigarettes. It is further the intent and purpose of this chapter that whenever any cigarettes are given for advertising or any purpose whatsoever, they shall be taxed in the same manner as if they were sold, used, consumed, handled, or distributed in this state. Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in this chapter, the liability for the excise taxes imposed by this chapter shall be conclusively presumed to be on the retail purchaser or ultimate consumer, precollected for convenience and facility only. When such taxes are paid by any other person, such payment shall be considered as an advance payment and shall be added to the price of the cigarettes and recovered from the ultimate consumer or user. Distributors, wholesalers, or retailers may state the amount of the tax separately from the price of such cigarettes on all price display signs, sales or delivery slips, bills, and statements which advertise or indicate the price of such cigarettes.

As this statute makes clear, this tax applies to all purchases of cigarettes. It does not make a difference if the purchase is over the counter, via the internet, or in any other manner. Just as every person who purchases cigarettes in a store owes cigarette tax, so does the person who purchases cigarettes from an internet vendor.

The Department refers to IC 6-8.1-5-1(a), which states:

If the department reasonably believes that a person has not reported the proper amount of tax due, the department shall make a proposed assessment of the amount of the unpaid tax on the basis of the best information available to the department. The amount of the assessment is considered a tax payment not made by the due date and is subject to IC 6-8.1-10 concerning the imposition of penalties and interest. The department shall send the person a notice of the proposed assessment through the United States mail.

The Department received information from the vendor (through the Jenkins Act) naming taxpayer as the purchaser of cigarettes. The Department made proposed assessments based on the best information available to it, as provided by IC 6-8.1-5-1(a).

Taxpayer argues that she did not purchase cigarettes from the vendor. To that end taxpayer has provided the Department with sufficient documentation and explanation to show that she did not buy, sell, use, consume, handle, or distribute the cigarettes. Taxpayer has met her burden of proof.

FINDING

Taxpayer's protest is sustained.

II. Tax Administration—Negligence Penalty

DISCUSSION

Regarding the penalty and interest that was assessed under IC 6-8.1-10-2.1 and IC 6-8.1-10-1, since the taxpayer has shown that it did not owe the cigarette tax (See Section I, supra), the taxpayer prevails on this issue too.

FINDING

Taxpayer's protest is sustained.
